

European Journalism Centre

Organisational Profile

Founded in 1992 in Maastricht, the Netherlands, the European Journalism Centre is an independent non-profit training organisation that aims at promoting the highest standards in journalism.

The EJC relies on a vast network of trainers in journalism as well as on experts and media specialists and offers short intensive workshops for journalists from Europe and beyond. The EJC organises activities in the main European languages in a growing number of European cities.

During the last years, the EJC has developed a series of comprehensive training activities, seminars and briefings as well as panels and discussions aimed at providing media professionals with tools and information necessary to understand the mechanisms, impact and challenges of the European integration process.

Internship Profile

The intern will, inter alia:

- Write contributions for the EJC online magazine and blog;
- Attend conferences and seminars relating to the EU and its policies;
- Offer general support to EJC staff members;
 - Assist in the preparation of the programmes, press packs and materials for seminar participants,
 - Research and proofread documents for the website and publications;
- Update EJC databases.

Intern Profile

The successful candidate should have the following qualities and skills:

- √ Native English Speaker;
- √ Knowledge of and interest in European affairs;
- √ Basic knowledge of journalism and communication;
- √ Excellent organisational and networking skills.

Disclaimer:

 Possibility to do a double internship of 280 hours (*applied to Study Abroad students only)