“This BA provided me with excellent academic skills and in-depth understanding of both theory and practice. Based in the heart of Europe, this school has a lot to offer to those passionate about the EU and the world – through various assignments, extensive extra-curricular guest lectures and internship opportunities. Following this experience, I pursued a Master’s in Global Governance and Diplomacy at the University of Oxford and then started working for the European Commission in the field of EU external relations.”

- Barbara Benuskova (2014)
