</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Students who intend to pay in this way should tick the “Deferred Payment Plan” box on the “College Registration Form” that will be distributed to them during the Orientation/Registration period.

Students whose payments are not in order are not allowed to register for the next semester, to take examinations or to receive official documents or grades or attend classes. Any disputes arising in case of non-payment will be governed by Belgian law and any legal suit will be brought before the courts of Brussels.

Any non-agreed delays in payment will lead to an administrative fee of 100€ per delayed month.

Cancellation Charges
Please refer to the section on “Financial Information” in the Vesalius College catalogue or on the website: www.vesalius.edu.

Family Tuition Reduction
Vesalius College offers a 20% tuition reduction if two or more siblings are enrolled at the College simultaneously. This reduction is applicable to the tuition of one of the two siblings only. Vesalius College also offers a 20% tuition reduction to siblings and children of alumni.

Family tuition reduction: If applicable, students should tick the appropriate box on the “College Registration Form” that will be distributed to them during the Orientation/Registration period.
